

YOUNG PEOPLE MARRY MONDAY

Miss Wingate Evans and Mr. Dillard Douglas Married at Methodist Parsonage.

Miss Wingate Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Evans, and Mr. Dillard Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Douglas, surprised their many friends Monday night by being quietly married at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. E. L. Southgate performing the ceremony.

Miss Evans, who moved here from Bath county a few months ago, has by her charming manner, winning personality and sweet disposition made herself popular with a wide circle of friends and admirers.

Mr. Douglas, who only recently returned from the navy is a splendid young man, well liked by all who know him. He was mail carrier on one of the rural routes for several years before going in the navy and upon his return again took up his duties. After the ceremony the happy couple left in Mr. Douglas' automobile for a short bridal tour.

The Advocate joins friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

OIL STRUCK HERE

The Bradford National Oil & Gas Company, of Bradford, Pa., report that an oil well has been brought in on the Apperson farm on the Camargo pike. The president of the company says that sand eleven feet thick was struck at a depth of 304 feet and that it is now good for five to ten barrels, but that his company intends going deeper and hope to reach the second sand in a few days. It is said that the well will be shot when the second sand is reached. Considerable interest is being taken as the oil found is said to be of the very best grade now being found in Kentucky.

FARM CHANGES HANDS

Mr. S. B. Lane last week purchased the I. D. Yocum farm near Grassy Lick, this county, and has sold same to Mr. W. W. Eubank. Price private but said to have been a good one. Mr. Eubank owns a large farm directly across the turnpike from the place he just purchased.

ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. W. Caldwell Clay entertained the members of the Sewing Club Friday afternoon at her beautiful new home on North Maysville street. It was one of the most delightful meetings the society has had for many weeks.

COLEMAN INJURED

Relatives here have been advised that Lieutenant C. T. Coleman who is in France, was ill and while being conveyed to a hospital in an ambulance the machine was wrecked and he was injured, however it is not thought his injuries are serious. The local chapter of the Red Cross have just received a post card from Lieutenant Coleman and on it was written "May God bless you all for the many comforts and the happiness you have given to the American Army." We are sure that this message direct from one of our own boys, will encourage the ladies to further efforts when they realize how very much their labors are appreciated.

FORMER ASSESSOR DIES

Mr. James T. Barnes, former County Assessor of this county, died at a hospital in Lexington, Monday, January 13th, following two serious operations. When taken to Lexington to be operated on, Mr. Barnes was not considered in a dangerous condition but complications arose and the end quickly followed. Mr. Barnes was a resident of the Howard's Mill neighborhood and one of the most popular men in Montgomery county. As honest as the days are long, and as conscientious as men are made, "Jim" Barnes, as he was affectionately known to a host of friends, was one of the best beloved and most highly respected citizens in this county. As a public official, as in private life, Mr. Barnes ever had the interest of his fellowman nearest at heart, and in his passing Montgomery county has lost one of its most trust-worthy citizens. The remains were brought to this city Monday night and taken to his home at Howards Mill, where funeral services conducted by Rev. Clyde Darsie assisted by B. W. Trimble, were held with burial in Macipelah cemetery last Tuesday. Mr. Barnes was fifty-eight years of age and a member of the Christian church. He is survived by his wife and nine daughters who have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of a devoted husband and father.

BUYS GRIGGS GARAGE

Messrs. Hanly Ragan and Marvin N. Gay have purchased from Mr. L. E. Griggs, the building, equipment and business of the Griggs Motor Car Co., on Maysville street and will get possession about the first of February. These gentlemen will continue the business along the same high-class lines that it has been conducted under while Mr. Griggs has been in charge. Being widely connected and well known, they will make a success of their new venture.

TOBACCO PRICES ARE SOARING

All Three Warehouses Report That The Prices Are Satisfactory To Growers.

The sale at the three loose leaf warehouses in this city are being attended by large crowds and all warehouses are having full floors at every sale with wagons standing on the streets waiting to be unloaded, however every effort is made to unload wagons as fast as possible and very little time is being lost by farmers waiting to have their wagons unloaded. The prices now being received are satisfactory to the growers as far as we have been able to ascertain. We have heard but one complaint during the past week and we will give the figures so our readers can judge for themselves how much of a kick the man had coming to him. He sold over 3,000 pounds for an average of more than $64.00 per hundred.

The Whitehall had a blocked sale Monday and sold 149,295 pounds for $63,839.85, or an average of $42.76. This sale was completed this morning but at the time of our going to press no floor average was obtainable.

We publish below a few of the crop averages at the Whitehall: Hall & Kearns, 6615 pounds, average $57.34; Hiler & Oldfield, 2205 pounds, average $52.43; Hiler &

IS FLU VICTIM

Mrs. E. J. Owen, of Irvine, Tenn., died at Pittsburg, Pa., Saturday last, of pneumonia, following influenza. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilson, of this city, and will be remembered by many old friends here who will learn of her death with sincere regret.

LOCAL POST OFFICE ROBBED

John Carter and John Congleton, two young colored boys, aged about ten years, robbed the Post Office in this city sometime Sunday evening. The little Carter negro had been employed in the office delivering Special Delivery letters and seemed to be a polite, energetic, hustling little boy. However, when accused of the crime by the officers he confessed that he unlocked one of the parcel post windows and that he assisted the Congleton boy to crawl through the window. A few stamps and money from a change drawer was taken, the total amounting to between $7.00 and $10.00. Both boys were placed in jail and will doubtless be tried at the coming term of the Circuit court. Postmaster Turner conducted the investigation quietly assisted by the local police and in less than thirty-six hours from the time the theft was committed the boys were in jail.

KILLPATRICK ELECTED

Mr. Claude P. Killpatrick has been elected Secretary-Treasurer of the City School Board and has qualified by giving bond before County Judge E. W. Senf. Mr. Killpatrick succeeds Mr. W. H. Strossman who on account of his duties with an insurance company is out of the city the greater part of his time and could not give the duties the time it required. Mr. Strossman had been connected with the School Board for more than twenty years and was an accommodating, efficient gentleman. His successor is well qualified for his duties.

NOW AT CAMP TAYLOR

Bruce Turner, better known as "Dick" to his wide circle of friends, who was severely wounded in France and who was sent to Fort Oglethorpe, has been transferred to Camp Taylor. Mr. Turner was shot in the head just back of the left ear and his hearing in the left ear completely destroyed and the whole left side of his face seems to be paralyzed, however he will be placed under the care of the most skillful doctors in the country and his friends hope for his ultimate restoration to health.

BOYS RESERVE

ENROLLMENT WEEK

Uncle Sam's boys between the ages of 16 and 21 all over the Nation are to be summoned to worldwide relief work during the week of January 20-26. Volunteers are needed on the farms to help plant, tend and harvest the greatest food crop ever produced in the United States. President Wilson has called for enormous supplies for the hungry people of Europe, upon the report of Herbert Hoover and his staff of investigators.

Military and civic authorities in Kentucky declare there will be a shortage of farm labor this year. This shortage can be met in a very large way by the boys and the U. S. Department of Labor has chosen the Reserve for the work. Last year several thousand boys in Kentucky were enlisted through the Reserve and gave splendid service.

All boys between the ages of 16 and 21 are entitled to be enrolled. By working 36 days they will receive a bronze badge and be entitled to wear the official uniform; by working 75 days or more they will receive a service bar. Boys who work on the farms of their parents or neighbors are entitled to enroll as well as boys in the cities and towns and receive the rewards for faithful service.

Federal county directors in the state are in charge of the enrollment week.

BUYS NICE FARM

Mr. Hall has not decided as to where he will locate but many friends hope that he and his excellent family will remain in Montgomery county.

Y. W. C. A. WORKER IS BIG SISTER

Industrial Woman's Service Club Brings Home to Girls in New Factory Community.

BLUE TRIANGLE MEANS CHEER

Club Stands for Hot Lunches, Clean Towels, Comfortable Cots, Parties, Games and Recreation to Girl Workers.

Katherine Holland Brown.

"MY name is May Isabel Carnahan. I am eighteen years old, and I work in a big factory in Michigan. More than four hundred other girls work there too. I don't aim to tell you about our jobs. You can read about our work in the labor department reports. But I do aim to tell you about our Big Sister and of the things she has done for us.

"To begin with, our factory town isn't a town at all. It's a huge barn of buildings stuck down in the country nineteen miles from nowhere. There is a railroad siding, a station the size of a dry goods box, seven farmhouses and one general store and postoffice combined—it's pretty near as big as a hot tamale stand. And that's all. No Main street, no banks nor stores, no ice-cream parlors, not one solitary movie show. In all these nineteen miles. Lonesome? It's the ragged edge of desolation, that's what it is.

"I was one of the first carload of forty girls that was shipped up from Chicago. The factory was swarming with workmen putting in the machinery, and we girls couldn't begin work for a day or so, so we began hunting places to eat and sleep. That was a trifle that the employment folks hadn't thought of. The workmen were sleeping and eating in the cars that had brought them there, backed on the siding. Our only chance for beds and food was with those seven farmhouses, so we marched straight to the farmers' wives and asked for board and room.

Farmers' Wives Hospitable.

"I will say that those women were kind and hospitable. They fixed it up between them to feed us forty girls, and they gave us good food too. But for rooms, that was the question. They could each spare one room. That meant sleep five or six in a room. But right then along came the boss of the factory and told us the machinery was ready and he'd expect us girls to work double shifts, night and day.

"He wanted to make use of every minute, you see. But that gave us our chance as to sleeping. We fixed it up with the farm folks that we'd work double shifts and sleep double shifts too.

"So we planned it. Three girls would use a room from eight at night till six the next morning. Then they'd hustle over to the factory, and the three girls who'd been working all night would take the room and sleep till afternoon. It wasn't any luxurious stunner, believe me. The farm women had so few sheets and pillow cases that most of us went without. And towels were scarce as diamonds on blackberry bushes. As to soap—well, the general store kept yellow bar soap, that kind that is so full of rosin you could use it to caulk a ship. But we made out till the next three carloads of girls came rolling in. Then we went most distracted. Those poor girls had to sleep in tents and in the cars that the workmen had abandoned by this time, and they were lousy if they got a straw tick and a blanket. By this time it had turned raw cold, and maybe you know what late autumn nights in Michigan feel like. To cap the climax the farm folks cut down on food, and for a week it was potatoes and beans and mighty few beans at that.

Along Came a Miracle.

"But, right when we were about ready to quit our jobs and beat it for home, along came a miracle. Two quiet, businesslike women climbed down from the eastbound train one morning. With them came eight workmen, a carload of scuttling and tar paper, another carload of cots and blankets and pillows and sheets and towels—brand new blankets and beds—think of the glory of that!—and bushels of dishes and rolls of oilcloth and enough hurlap to carpet the country. You won't believe me when I tell you that in ten days their workmen had a scuttling-and-tar-paper shack put up and burlap tacked over the walls, and the Y. W. C. A. secretary and her helper had set up board tables and coffee kettles and were serving us the grandest hot lunches every day. And back behind the burlap screens were set those rows of clean cots, with enough cover to keep you warm the coldest night that ever blew, and a towel apiece for every single girl. Do you wonder that we all felt, as one girl put it, 'I'll wager the Fritz-Carleton has nothing on this!'

"Who were those women? Why, Y. W. C. A. secretaries, of course. I'd think you'd know that without being told. All over the country wherever we girls have pitched in to make aeroplane cloth or overalls or munitions or canned goods you'll find a Y. W. C. A. secretary, working harder than anybody else to make the girls comfortable and to keep them happy and well. Sometimes they haven't money enough to get all that we really need. But always they stretch every cent to make it do its level best for us. Do you wonder that we girl workers have learned to call the Y. W. C. A. our Big Sister—the very best Big Sister of all?

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAQTOWN TORCHLIGHT

NOT CERTAIN.—A letter from a subscriber in Oklahoma inquires if the editor of the Torchlight is a pessimist. Three days ago we were idiot enough to let Judge J. F. Cross take our dictionary with him on his trip to Lone Jack, Ark., and as he has not yet returned, we are somewhat in doubt about the word. If it means the same as phoenix, then we are a pessimist. Phoenix means to rise from the ashes. We have riz. We are in doubt about the ashes, but the way we have sprouted has astonished this whole section of Arkansas. If, on the other hand, being a pessimist means being as all-fired homely as the editor of our esteemed contemporary, the Coon Holler Index, and as infernally cranky as the post master of this town, then we must respectfully decline the honor. We shall not give a decided answer until we have looked up the definition according to Webster.

Miss Bertha Brown, who pinned her name in a pair of Red Cross socks last winter, got a letter Friday from a Ukrainian moujik, and is having it translated by a civil engineer.

Our old friend P. P. Wood, who lives in Swamp Valley township, was a caller at the Torchlight office Thursday. Mr. Wood has been keeping a diary for nigh on to 40 years but stopped last week. He says it seems foolish to be recording his piffing affairs when men are making history every day.

Billy Jacobs, formerly of Plunkville has opened a coal yard in Snaqtown. Billy is highly respected for his many virtuous qualities. He was never married.

At a meeting of the village Council last Tuesday night, Walter Little was appointed City Marshall. Mr. Little says, while he appreciates the appointment, he longs for a position as Inspector of something so he could get paid for kicking.

Willie Howe, the village entup of Snaqtown has a pet lizard he takes around with him wherever he goes. Widow Zettwald over on the other side of Rattle Snake Ford says some men are always wisting their affections on something that does not appreciate it.

It is reported that old Doctor Breedlove is becoming so near-sighted he will have to move up closer to Snaqtown.

Sol Batavia, our efficient postmaster narrowly escaped being kicked by a mule Wednesday morning, by climbing a tree in the Panther Creek bottoms. The mule was at the blacksmith shop, and instead kicked old Jack May.

Old Uncle Charley Ewell who used to have a well to brag on now sings the praises of his high-power thermometer.

The editor of the Plunkville Patriot will please take notice: A fellow ought to be shaved and fairly well-to-do before he offers any suggestions about the peace terms.

Leonard Boulton is thinking of moving to Benton. Some folks wouldn't think of living in a little town where everybody knows everybody. They prefer the city where everybody's all right till they're arrested.

Old Bill Holmes, our progressive liveryman now has a good rattling Ford car. He says next to having a robber in your car poking a pistol in your ear the worst thing is trying to drive with your wife sitting in the back seat.

Every time old Si Snodgrass says: "That reminds me of a little incident," prepare to be bored.

Is Your Car Coughing Badly This Morning?

MESSAGE TO Y. W. C. A. FROM FRANCE.

I must express to you the very great satisfaction and most sincere gratitude of the French Government for the service rendered to the women working in Government factories through the establishment of Y. W. C. A. Foyers des Aliees (clubrooms for munitionettes).
These foyers have been an excellent means for bettering the physical conditions and the morale of our workers. They have been constantly used by the women workers, who have found there new elements of dignity and social education.
I must thank you for bringing this to pass, and I hope that Y. W. C. A. work will not disappear with the war, but will be carried on in order to develop the principles of social solidarity which it has inspired.
(Signed) M. LOUCHER, Minister of Arms and Munitions Manufacture.

Entertain Roumanian Countess at American Show in France.

Picture shows are being put on in France without cameras, scenery or any of the necessary properties, according to reports reaching the National Y. W. C. A. from a Y. W. C. A. nurses' hut in a Base Hospital.

Having no film or camera, the nurses at Base decided to put on a living picture show and invited a group of nurses from a nearby hospital to be the audience. It was a real thriller, one of the wild and woolly west variety, with bucking bronchos and wild rides on broom and mop horses.

Imagination supplied the scenery, with the exception of placards, which announced "the sun" when it was supposed to be shining or "cacti" when the cow puechers rode across the desert.

Countess Vacaresca of Roumania, who had been talking to the nurses on conditions in the German courts at the time she was lady-in-waiting to the Queen of Roumania, was the most appreciative of all the guests.

INSIGNIA, CURTAINS, MADE FROM SKIRTS

Blue broadcloth skirts used for organization insignia and plaid summer dresses reconstructed into window curtains are after war economies of the nine Y. W. C. A. secretaries in Archangel, Russia.

These secretaries have just succeeded, in the face of food and cloth shortages, in opening a Y. W. C. A. Hostess House for American troops stationed in Archangel, a town behind the allied lines. It was necessary to hunt up a volle summer dress which one of the secretaries had discarded for heavy winter clothes in order to have curtains at the windows. They live on regulation army rations.

Archangel is the fourth city in Russia where the Y. W. C. A. has established work. Centers were opened first in Petrograd and Moscow and then in Samara, 900 miles eastward from Moscow.

Miss Elizabeth Boies, head of Russian work and one of the few Americans who remained in that country throughout the revolution, is en route to America by way of England to recruit workers for Russia.

A second Y. W. C. A. Hostess House, for wives and children of soldiers, is soon to be opened at Casiner, Calu, Hawaiian Island, to care for the overflow of women and children from the first house, which opened some months ago in answer to a call from the commanding officer of the camp.

During 15 days in November 2,152 visitors were entertained at the house, including women and children, of the following nationalities: Philippine, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, Russian, Porto Rican, Korean, Japanese and American.

FOYERS IN FRANCE.

Four departments of the French Government have asked the American Y. W. C. A. to open social and recreation centers for girls employed by them—Finance, Commerce, War and Labor.

Lieutenant Poncet of the Ministry of Labor recently requested that this Y. W. C. A. work be begun for girls in his office after seeing the social and recreation centers which had been opened at the request of the Ministry of War. Sixteen centers of this kind are operated in six cities in France. Three of them are in Paris.

The last of these Foyers des Aliees is for girls who are working in the Department of Labor. It is far down the Seine, under the shadow of the Eiffel Tower, and overlooks the Quai d'Orsay.

The rooms are bright and cheerful, with chintz hangings and cushions, comfortable chairs, reading and writing tables and a fireplace. A kitchen has equipment so that girls can prepare meals for themselves. They go to the foyer for their two hour lunch-time, for social evenings and for classes in English.

400,000 YANKS ARE Y. W. C. A. VISITORS

Four hundred thousand persons and more served in the cafeteria in one year is the record of the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Camp Lewis, American Lake, Wash.

The majority of the 400,000 diners were mothers, wives, sweethearts and friends who went to the camp to visit their soldiers. The remainder were soldiers themselves who broke the monotony of "chow" with home cooked meals. In addition to all these guests, 25,000 little children were cured for in the nursery and the rest room served 70,000 tired wives and mothers.

The workers at the information desk received and answered 97,000 questions varying from how to get the best connections to a destination clear across the continent, the rates of soldiers' insurance and the kind of cretonne a girl bride should have in her living room now that Private John is coming home from France. Eleven thousand of these queries required telephone conversations with various company commanders relative to hunting up a soldier whose parents had arrived unexpectedly.

Y. W. C. A. CAFETERIA IN PORTO RICO

Porto Rico has a cafeteria. It is the first one established on the island, and when it was opened in the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Camp Las Casias the natives crowded around, much amused at the innovation. They lusted upon having American dishes.

The house became very well known in a short time, and a group of women from San Juan volunteered to go out every week to mend socks and sew on buttons for the soldiers.

RUSSIAN PRINCESSES LEARN TO TRIM HATS

Y. W. C. A. Saves Wife of General From Becoming Charwoman.

When the war work of the Y. W. C. A. in Russia has all been told one of the most interesting stories will lie in the establishment of the first Women's Co-operative Association at Moscow.

There day after day princesses work side by side with peasant girls, wives of high Russian officials make dresses or trim hats at long tables with simple, unlettered women, and the money is used for self support of these princesses and notable women as well as for the peasant classes.

The need and sufferlag throughout all Russia was so great at the time the Association was established that it was a problem to find where the money would help the greatest number of people. It was thought best to expend it to help capitalize organizations for giving work and permanent opportunities to families and individuals to earn their own living.

The women bring their handwork to the Association for sale or take orders to do dressmaking, millinery, etc., in the rooms of the society or at home. Suitable work was found just in time not long ago to keep the wife of one of Russia's greatest generals from going out as a charwoman to earn bread for her husband, who was ill.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Mt. Sterling woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder troubles, should be glad to heed this Mt. Sterling woman's experience:

Mrs. Jace Trimble, 3 Jamison st., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me when my kidneys were out of order. I suffered with dull, nagging pains across my kidneys and I felt tired out and weak. I also had dizzy headaches and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they rid me of the backaches and other signs of kidney trouble."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Trimble had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y. 30-21

NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. Harvey Crooks, Mrs. Scott Goodpaster and Miss Lucile Alexander, of Bath county, had a rather narrow escape from death last Wednesday when an automobile in which they were riding turned over. Fortunately the ladies escaped with slight injuries, but Mr. Crooks had his tongue badly cut by glass, or he bit same when the car turned over. Help was secured and Mr. Crooks taken to a Lexington hospital, but he is now able to be out. Many friends will be pleased to know that his injuries are not as severe as was first reported.

RESOLVED

That peace will find us backing Uncle Sam as strongly as we backed him in war.

That between now and April we will lay every possible stone of the groundwork for the Fifth Liberty Loan and leave no act undone which will tend to keep alive and, if possible, quicken the consciousness of the nation that Saving and Thrift are Peace essentials as well as War essentials.

That we will exert our every effort to stop trafficking in bonds of the first four loans.

That we will smite as lustily as of yore the German propagandists who whine about the impossibility of putting over another popular loan and who state on "inside information" that the banks will subscribe the Fifth Loan.

That we will work tooth and nail from now till the last day of the April drive to oversubscribe that Fifth Liberty Loan.

That we will oversubscribe it.

That we will finish our job.

CIRCUS LIFE IS WELL DEPICTED IN PICTURE STARRING ENID BENNETT

Dainty Thomas H. Ince-Paramount Star to Be Seen as Lion Trainer and Thrills Abound in New Photoplay

A REAL old-fashioned one-ring circus, one of the kind that were popular in the days of our grandfathers, when the clown and ring master were supreme, is the big feature of "The Biggest Show on Earth," the new photoplay by Florence Vincent, in which Enid Bennett, the beautiful Thomas H. Ince-Paramount star, is the leading figure.

Miss Bennett has the role of Roxie Kemp, a showgirl whose great act is to face several lions in their cage. She quits the circus when she is seventeen and enters a girls' academy where she has many interesting adventures, including one in which she saves a girl chum from the fangs of a vicious dog which she masters by the sheer force of her glance.

There is a pretty love story in which Roxie and her sweetheart are the chief figures. Roxie is opposed by the aristocratic mother of her fiance, who regards circus folk with supreme contempt, until her husband, a proud Colonel, confesses that he owns part of a circus and hints that if Roxie isn't good enough for his son, he (the Colonel) isn't good enough for the proud mother. After Roxie risks her life to save her father's circus from a riotous mob, she is accepted as true blue all around and finds happiness.

The picture is exceptionally fine and the cast one of unusual excellence. "The Biggest Show on Earth" will be the bill at the TABB THEATRE, next TUESDAY, JAN. 28th, and Manager Small has made all preparation to handle record breaking crowds.

WATCH US GROW

Not all the signers of the Declaration of Independence were satisfied in their own minds that the Republican form of government they planned would stand the test of time.

But they were willing to risk their necks to take a chance.

Not all of the statesmen since their day have been satisfied with the result. Some have declared that the Republics fall short of the desired mark; that there is too much politics and too little honest-to-God looking after the public welfare.

And looking back down the years since 1776, seeing the progress America has made; appreciating the truly wonderful growth and prosperity the country has enjoyed and realizing the influence our example has exercised upon the world at large, we will have to admit that the experiment has done pretty well.

For finally it devolved upon America, the struggling infant of a century ago, to step in and save the world from the terror of tyranny and oppression and serfdom and unprecedented extortion that, rolled into one, represent Kaiserism.

And incidentally make the world free for democracy.

Now throughout the length and breadth of Germany and Russia and the Balkans the people are fighting with the old, hard-dying Imperialistic spirit for a greater liberty.

For Sale by W. S. Lloyd, Druggist

A lusty little flock of prospective Republics are poking their heads above the troubled waters of world regeneration.

For the Republic is coming into its own.

And Whoop-ee! Watch us grow!

Uncle Sam didn't get away without getting his fingers just a trifle scorched. It cost him a pretty penny, but he's a thoroughbred. In the game for the common good of the world he didn't try to pass the buck.

And don't you try to in the next Liberty Loan.

PUBLIC SALE Blue Grass Farm Land Saturday Morning, February 1st,

One and one-fourth miles from the Court House, Mt. Sterling, Ky., at 10 o'clock, on the premises, I will, as agent for Grover C. Anderson, sell to the highest and best bidder,

Eighty Acres of Land

This farm lies on the South side of the Lulbeograd pike, just 150 yards west of the Mt. Sterling and Levee turnpike, and is known as the Marshall farm. Since falling into the present owner's hands it has been nursed and farmed in a husband-like manner, until to-day it is as productive a piece of land as was ever offered for sale in Montgomery County. 15 acres of this farm was sown in wheat in the fall of 1918, and followed by bluegrass and timothy. 8 acres is in clover, and the balance is in bluegrass and timothy sod, with the exception of 1 1/2 acres that was in tobacco in 1918. This crop of tobacco sold for over $520 per acre, proving that the land will grow as good crops as any land.

Improvements

Consist of a new Six-bent tobacco barn, with troughs and racks complete. One "Naco" Imperishable Tile Silo, capacity to feed 50 head of 1000 pound cattle. 300 barrel cistern at the barn, with a 15-barrel concrete watering trough. One corn crib, new, with shed, and crib has capacity of 100 barrels. Never failing spring on the back of the farm, and pond that was built in 1918. The fencing is all practically new and in good order.

Upon this tract of land are two beautiful building sites, and being so close to a city where there are all the advantages that one can expect, and in one of the best neighborhoods in the county we do not hesitate a moment in saying that the sale of this land came very unexpected to me, and it will be a bargain to the purchaser regardless of who that may be.

This Farm Will Be Sold Subject to Survey and without Reserve or By-Bid

The sale will be held on the premises, on the Lulbeograd pike, rain or shine, on

Saturday, February 1st, 1919

TERMS—One-third Cash March 1, 1919, when deed will be executed and delivered, and possession given, and the remainder will be divided in two equal payments, due and payable in 1 and 2 years, these payments to bear 6 per cent interest and to be secured by lien on the property. For further information see Grover C. Anderson or the undersigned.

PUBLIC AUCTION

At Court House Door, Mt. Sterling, Ky.,

Saturday, Jan. 25, 1919, at 2:00 o'clock p. m.

As agent for the heirs, I will sell at public auction on the above date and at the place mentioned, the modern cottage home, belonging to the DeHaven heirs, and situated on Maysville Street, almost within a stone's throw of the Court House. The lot is about 65 feet wide in front and runs a depth of over 300 feet, making it large and roomy, with plenty of garden space and room for chickens.

The residence contains 5 rooms, kitchen, bath room, rear hall and front and side porches. The house is in good condition, with new roof, and is piped for gas and wired for electricity. On the lot is a good stable with two stalls and large buggy shed, that could be used as a garage without alteration. There is also small storehouse, coal house, chicken yard, two good garden spots and other improvements.

The location of this home is one of the best in the city—on asphalt Maysville street, close to the schools, churches, business centers and Court House, and the neighborhood cannot be improved upon anywhere in the world. Practically all residents living in that section are property owners, and neighbors of a life time. This is one of the real good pieces of property that is now offered for sale and if you want a good home in a location that is desirable and which will never deteriorate, then you can make no mistake in buying this piece of property. TERMS WILL BE MADE KNOWN ON DAY OF SALE. Go look this property over and be a bidder and a buyer of a desirable home. Also at the same time and place I will sell a tract of land containing located on the Winchester pike, and adjoining the lands of Mrs. Harp and Mrs. Peter Kelly. This land is rich and ready for tobacco and has never been tobacco tired. It has on it a good young orchard now bearing, and has one of the prettiest building sites in Montgomery county. The location cannot be improved upon. Just five minutes drive from the city district.

Go see this land, or come and see me and let us talk it over. These properties are going to sell. Make up your mind to be a bidder and buyer for both these pieces of property. For further information call on,

NEWS PRINT OUTLOOK FOR YEAR IS BAD

New York.—A recent issue of the Editor and Publisher carried a carefully prepared statement of the news print situation. It quotes the prices that are being made to the large metropolitan newspapers for roll print when ordered in large quantities. News print when supplied in sheets sells for 50 cent a hundred more than the price for rolls when ordered in equally large quantities. The article as printed in the Editor and Publisher is as follows:

"It is on the cards—and this is the view not of pessimists, but of publishers keenly observant—that the year 1919 will see a large number of newspaper properties, small only as compared with the great metropolitan dailies, either closing their plants because they cannot get supplies of newsprint at any price, or combining with others in the same locality for the same reason. This without the consideration of the other factors that have greatly enhanced the cost of production of a newspaper.

"Remedy for the high cost of newsprint, as well as of labor, must be found in advancing the selling price of newspapers and increasing advertising rates; two actions that it is freely prophesied will have to occur anyway.

"While these would help to meet expenses, however, they could not add a single pound to the production of newsprint, which already has fallen so low that there is scarcely enough to go around.

"Taking the latest available statistics, there appears to be about six weeks' supply in the country. Of this two-thirds is in the hands of the consumers, though very unequally distributed. Some publishers have enough to make them feel safe for quite a while to come, while others are on the ragged edge, with enough only for a week or so, unable at that to feel at all certain about when and how future needs are to be satisfied. Of the remaining third, half is in the hands of the jobbers and in transit, and half with the manufacturers.

"During the month of November, 61 mills producing newsprint reported to the federal trade commission for the first full week, 60 for the second week, 61 for the third, 60 for the fourth and but 59 for the fifth. The unusually large amount of time lost is ascribed principally to repairs and lack of labor. Between November 3 and December 1 the production was 113,283 tons and the shipments 112,988 tons, and the mill stocks on hand at the beginning of this month were 20,550 tons. About 30,000 tons of newsprint are being held for export awaiting bottoms, but they are generally of sizes not available for United States publishers.

"Prices are almost anything the manufacturers wish to name. From $3.50 a hundred to $4, and publishers are scrambling to assure themselves of safety during the coming year on the best terms they can make. It is reported that the Philadelphia Bulletin has closed its contract with the Great Northern at $3.50 for the entire year, but some others are signing up at $4 on the theory that they will thus be assured of paper for the entire twelve months, and at a figure little if any, higher than the others will pay ultimately who accept other arrangements offered.

"The winter has been open so far, and shipments from mills to consumers have been reasonably regular. It is reported now, however, that freight is moving badly between Canadian and New England Points, and a severe snowstorm is almost certain, if it comes, to delay deliveries. To some newspapers, working with a very small margin, this might mean temporary suspension and subsequent heavy loss.

"When the federal trade commission first fixed a price—$3.10—the manufacturers said openly that they might better close their mills than produce paper at less than $4 per hundred, f. o. b. mill. They have kept on repeating it ever since—and the production for 1918 has fallen 100,000 tons below what might have

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness . . . I would go for three weeks almost bent double . . . My husband went to Dr. — for Cardui . . .

After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-80 been expected in happier times.

"Some of the manufacturers are even now saying that they think seriously of turning their machines to the production of other grades of paper, notwithstanding the fact that since hostilities ceased consumption of several kinds of these papers has fallen off and that last month a number of mills producing board, wrapping, manila, etc., were shut down for considerable periods for lack of orders.

"To aggravate the situation, there is the menace of export. South America is sadly in need of newsprint, and is willing to pay a high price for it. Some South American countries refuse to allow their vessels that touch at American ports to return without some print paper in cargo. England is suffering from a shortage, and France, Belgium and Italy are in almost desperate straits. The United States has always been an importer of newsprint, never having produced enough for its needs. At present bottoms to carry any considerable amount to other countries are not available. It is predicted that when they are the already short supply, which has been growing during the past year, will be further depleted by exports in excess of the unusual high figure of 15,000 tons a month. It is unnecessary to say what will happen then to those American publishers who cannot even now assure themselves that they will get enough to keep their presses running during the coming year.

"Notwithstanding, Phillip T. Dodge, president of the International Paper company, who as a rule expresses the sentiment of the manufacturers, says the trend of newsprint across the ocean will have to be in the contrary direction. Speaking to the Editor and Publisher, Mr. Dodge said:

"If present conditions continue the publishers will have to go to foreign countries for paper. The government and the publishers are driving the newsprint business out of the United States.

"In the past ten years no new mills for newsprint have been erected. In that time only two companies, the International and the Great Northern, have materially increased their output. In the last two years many mills equipped for making newsprint have gone to making other kinds of paper."

EAST SWINGING INTO LINE

Famous "Road to Mandalay" Rapidly Becoming Dotted With Industrial Plants of All Sorts.

The whirl of the loom and constant hum of industrial machinery are fast drowning the softer noises of the East, "from Rangoon to Mandalay."

Here, in the very section that Kipling made familiar to the world more than a generation ago, when he described the mystic charm of India, manufacturing communities have sprung up that make the banks of the rivers resemble those of the Merrimack in New England, writes a correspondent.

Burma girls, such as written for the British soldier, are still here, but most of them are working in shops.

The annual report of the Indian factories act committee for 1917 shows there are 536 factories registered, with 68,435 persons employed.

Ice mills predominate, as might be expected. There are 329 of these, with 108 sawmills, six petroleum refineries, 15 cotton-ginning mills, 15 oil mills, eight shops for making printing presses, seven brass and iron factories and many others.

Ungoon, Mandalay and Moumein—three of the important manufacturing towns of the district, have been modernized. They have high sanitary standards and many of the conveniences that mark the prosperous European or American industrial community.

Modern India has her child labor laws. Women have supplanted children in most of the mills and few children under fourteen are employed.

Wages have not varied much in the last year, but even here, India is fast approaching Western communities. Most of the workers are seeking more pay and an increase is deemed likely in a few months.

War Deafness.

War deafness may be caused by injury to the ear, or simply by the force of concussion. In many cases there are general nervous affections. "By the force of the explosion," writes Dr. J. Gordon Wilson in the Journal of the American Medical Association, "the soldier may have been blown violently against the parapet or walls of the dugout, or hurled for some distance through the air or struck by debris from the destruction of neighboring buildings. One man described it as a soft, irresistible force pushing him up against the parapet wall close to which he was standing when the shell burst in the trench. As a result of explosions men may be buried for varying periods, and this has a bearing on the case. In a great number of cases the concussion bursts the eardrum. Frequently mental effects are complicated and a man imagines that he is deaf.

The treatment is repairing whatever wounds there may be. The deafness is usually temporary and hearing is gradually brought back.

MANY ROADS TO LONGEVITY

People Who Have Reached Advanced Age by No Means Unanimous as to the Best Path.

Records show that more women live to be centenarians than men. When the census of the United States was taken in 1900 it was found that 6,298 persons between the ages of ninety-five and ninety-nine were living, and of this number 3,536 were women.

Miss Eliza Work, who reached the age of one hundred and five, gave as the reason for her long life that she never drank tea or coffee; Mrs. Margaret Neve, who lived to be one hundred and ten, gave as her reason that she never lacked resources and was always busy, and Mrs. Sylvia Dunham, aged one hundred and one, lived to enjoy the enthusiasm of 22 presidential campaigns. Born in July, 1800, at the age of five she rode in a stage coach, at forty in a canal boat, at ninety-nine in an electric car, and at one hundred in an automobile.

Abraham lived to be one hundred and seventy-five years old and Sarah lived to be one hundred and twenty-seven years old, and Isaac, their son, lived to be one hundred and eight, but whether a year was reckoned then as we do now is not known.

William Gladstone lived to be eighty-nine, and at the time of his death his intellect was one of the finest that the world has ever known, and he was called "the Grand Old Man." This is just one of the many cases proving a man is just as useful, if not more so, when he is old than when he is young.

INSOMNIA NOT HARD TO CURE

Easy to Tell the Cause of the Affliction and Remedy is Matter of Common Sense.

"There are two kinds of insomnia, and each has its cure," a doctor said.

"In the first kind you go to bed apparently sleepy, and as soon as your head touches the pillow, you become wide awake, and the most vivid and feverish thoughts whirl through your mind for hours. At last, sick with exhaustion, you fall asleep, but it's too late then. Too much time has been lost. You rise in the morning unrefreshed.

"In the second kind of insomnia you go to sleep all right as soon as you go to bed, but in an hour or so you wake up. You lie tossing a long while. You rise unrefreshed here, too.

"The first kind of insomnia is due to rich, undigested food clogging the stomach. The remedy is simpler meals in the evening—no pork or game or cheese or pastry, but, instead, fish or chicken, whole-meal bread, custards or milk toast.

"The second kind is due to lack of exercise. A daily half-hour's gymnastics, followed by a cold bath and a rub-down, will drive it permanently away."

Defense of Rhythm in Poetry.

When a poet discards rhythm he is discarding perhaps the most powerful single artifice of poetry which is at his disposal—the particular artifice, moreover, which, more than any other, enables the poet to obtain a psychic control over his reader, to exert a sort of hypnosis over him. Rhythm is persuasive. It is the very stuff of life. It is not surprising, therefore, that things can be said in rhythm which otherwise cannot be said at all; paraphrase a fine passage of poetry into prose and in the dishevelment the ghost will have escaped. A good many champions of free verse would perhaps dispute this. They would fall back on the theory that, at any rate, certain moods more colloquial and less intense than those of the highest type of poetry, and less colloquial and more intense than those of the highest type of prose, could find their aptest expression in this form, which lies halfway between—Courard Atkin in the Dial.
